

Zuzanna Pełowska-Dąbrowska, PhD, is an assistant professor at the Commercial Law, Maritime Law and Civil Procedure Department of the Law and Administration Faculty at the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń. Between 2015 and 2019 she was a member of the Polish Codification Commission for Maritime Law. She is a vice president of the Polish Maritime Law Association, a member of the Maritime Law Commission's board of the Polish Academy of Sciences and an arbitrator in maritime disputes. In 2017 she has been awarded a scientific grant by the Polish National Science Center for the research dedicated to the problems of contemporary maritime codes. She is an author of many publications in the field of maritime law in Polish and English, including Codification of Maritime Law (Informa Law from Routledge 2020) and Maritime Safety. A Comparative Approach (Informa Law from Routledge 2021) (both as a co-editor and contributor). She has conducted her research in multiple maritime law centers, including Swansea, Southampton, Oslo, Cadiz, Castellon de la Plana and New Orleans (the latter one as Fulbright grantee). Since 2021 she is one of the directors of the International Maritime and Transport Law Course held annually in Dubrovnik, gathering researchers from European maritime law centers.
